

THE NEW YORK STORE

(ESTABLISHED 1853.)

CLOAK DEPARTMENT

TO THE LADIES:

We desire to make known to you the fact of our having marked down our entire stock of Cloaks. We have made very low prices in order to close the season and not carry over a garment. Our stock is not large but very well assorted in new markets, Circulars, and the new short Dolmans, and at prices which will suit the wants of all. Our Misses' Cloaks are also marked down. Ladies who are about purchasing an outside wrap will find it to be to their interest to examine our stock at the marked-down prices.

THE SENTINEL AT NEW ORLEANS.

To accommodate the throng from the Northwest who will desire to read their favorite home paper while attending the "World's Exposition," the Sentinel has been placed on sale in New Orleans at George F. Wharton & Bro's, No. 5 Carondelet street, between Canal and Common streets.

OLD PAPERS.

Good conditioned old papers for sale at this office at only 40 cents per hundred.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Mr. Morrison yesterday qualified as Police Commissioner.

James Elder was re-appointed Sheriff of the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon.

Charles Stirling and John Tenny have gone over to the jail for Grand Jury attention.

Thieves stole a supper at Cranor's, corner of Columbia avenue and Seventh street, Saturday night.

Louis Kansas was arrested yesterday by Patrolmen Low and Bruce for the alleged theft of a $45 carpet.

Squire Peileman yesterday fined John W. Sutton $11 for assault and battery on his wife, and in default of payment sent him to jail.

A woman whose name could not be learned attempted to commit suicide at the Emma House yesterday afternoon by taking an unusual quantity of chloroform.

Miss Dora Roberts died at Albuquerque Thursday. She was formerly a school teacher here, and had gone to New Mexico for her health. She will be brought home for burial.

Patrolman Isaacs broke up a poker game which was in progress in an East Washington street saloon yesterday afternoon and arrested William Gowell, Louis Hyam, Dick Sexton and Charles Bell on a charge of gambling.

About 100 persons, farmers, with their families, arrived in the city last night from the northern part of the State, on their way to the New Orleans Exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln, of 165 North Mississippi street, celebrated their sixteenth wedding anniversary last evening, a large number of their friends being present.

An Express Route Agent having a package for Indianapolis, Ia., recently, threw it off across the river. Four months later it was found where thrown, by the tracer.

Fred Dow, who, while drunk Sunday night, told two police he had deserted from the army, is being detained while the records are being hunted up. He denies the story now.

Last evening the police took a chap named Nichols off the South street crossing of the J. M. and L. tracks in time to save his life. He was fast asleep with both legs across the tracks. In a few minutes more he would have been cut to pieces.

At this time of the year the fur dealers are shipping great quantities of hides through the city. It is no unusual thing to detect the beautiful fur of the festive polecat by the delightful odor which takes possession of that part of the city covered by the wind blowing over the depot. Last night was a good night for them.

AMUSEMENTS.

"A HOOP OF GOLD" AT THE GRAND.
The new English spectacular melo-drama, "A Hoop of Gold," was given its first representation at the Grand Opera House last night before a large and appreciative audience, and judging from the almost continuous applause and laughter, it made a most pronounced hit. "A Hoop of Gold" is by Mortimer Murdoch, Esq., and like all successful plays of his character, has a spirited, smooth action and a rapid succession of sensational incidents. It runs the whole gamut of emotions, and is especially strong in comedy. It compares favorably with the scenic melo-dramas of its class, such as the "Romany Rye" and "Silver King." "A Hoop of Gold" is a pathetic story, and is abundantly entertaining. The scenery is new and elegant, and the audience is carried through the piece like one would be through an interesting novel. Some of the settings were especially elaborate and handsome and created much favorable comment. It was presented by a capable company—well balanced and strong all around. The person most noticed in the cast, both on account of the prominence of her part, and the capable manner in which it was rendered, without being forcible in an extraordinary sense, was Miss Beatrice Lieb, who played the role of "Ruth Bellamy." Mr. George Morton as "Richard Wrench" has an extremely difficult part to maintain, which he does remarkably well. Others worthy of special mention are Scott Walters as "Doctor Hartland," Walter Lennox, a most excellent comedian, as "Sammy Welberwick," and Arthur Moulton, equally good, as "Merrimon Scott." Maria Moriarty, the stage manager, as "Philip Lebeck," Josephine Laurens as "Mrs. Tester," and Ada Morton as "Lizzie Lovegrove." The scenery was brought by the company themselves, and did much to aid a very taking and well-written piece. On one or two occasions the curtain was run up several times in response to rounds of applause. There will be another performance to-night, to-morrow afternoon and to-morrow night.

"Hoop of Gold" is well worth seeing, and any one attending either of the performances will be amply repaid. The low prices of admission continue to be a feature at this house.

ENGLISH'S OPERA HOUSE.

The sign "Standing Room Only!" greeted the late-comer at English's last night, the attraction being the Wilbur Opera Company. This well-known company presented the popular and tuneful opera, "Girofle-Girofla," and the audience were most enthusiastic in their encores, the recalls being frequent and prolonged. Of the opera every one is familiar. The dual role of "Girofle-Girofla" was sustained by Miss Annie Kirwin, who has been seen here a number of times. Miss Kirwin has a light soprano voice of sweet quality and which she uses most advantageously. As an actress she invests the part with a winning coquetry and abandon that is irresistible. Her rendering of the familiar "See how it sparkles" brought down the house. Mr. Brand as "Monzack" acted and sang gracefully and with spirit, as also Mr. J. E. Conly as "Masquin." Mr. Ed Chapman, who makes up as a comedian what he lacks as a singer, brought down the house by his "gags" and comedy. Miss George Knowlton, as "Aurora," Miss Annie Somerville, as "Piquita," and Mr. H. Howard as "Pirate Chief," are capable artists. The remaining parts were sustained by Miss Annie Meyer and Miss Lulu Nichols. The chorus is well trained, and the ensembles were given with a dash and abandon that interested the most blasé theatre-goers. The performance merits large audiences, and the extreme low prices, ranging from ten to fifty cents, will no doubt be an additional inducement. To-night, that popular success, "The Little Duke," will be given.

THE ZOO.

The spectacular drama, "Black Crook," was produced at the Gold Mine last evening for the first time. Long before 8 o'clock, the sign, "Standing Room Only," was hung up, and several hundred persons turned away. The principal characters are taken by Mr. Allen, Will Mayo, Fred Felton, Will Stanford, Mrs. Felton, and Miss Nora Allen. Miss Josie Sutherland, in her songs and dances, called forth rounds of applause. Mr. Baldwin on the slack-wire is very fine, doing some very difficult feats thereon. Miss Ida May did as well as usual. The rest of the company, consisting of Miss Emma Leon, Pickett and Primrose, Stanford and Russell and Mr. Ed Gordon, do very neat acts, each being heartily applauded. "Black Crook" will be produced at the matinee to-day and every night during the present week. The prices have been reduced—the lower floor twenty-five cents and the gallery ten cents. The orchestra, under the leadership of Professor Keichhoefer, is also a drawing card this week.

THE MUSEUM.

As usual a very large audience was present at the Museum to witness one of the best performances that has been given at this popular resort since the opening night. In the curiosity hall may be seen Jo Jo, the sky-faced boy, the Bohemian glass blowers, besides many other objects of interest. The performance consists of the following well-known artists: Miss Violetta Shelby, the operatic vocalist; Mr. Charles Shilling, the musical mope; Mr. Frank Howe, Mr. Victor Jerome, Mr. William Conrad, the trained baby elephant, the Leander Quartet and Lester and Walker in a very amusing sketch. The admission has been placed within the reach of all; ten cents admits you to any part of the house.

NOTES.

Mr. Charles Black will appear in the cast of "The Little Duke" to-night at English's

Opera House, as also Miss Ida Hornell and the Misses Nichols.

The prices for the ladies' and children's "Hoop of Gold" matinee at the Grand to-morrow afternoon will be only 25 and 50 cents to all parts of the house.

The first half of next week the attraction at the Grand Opera House will be Gill & Arthur's "Two Bad Men" Comedy Company, and the last half, Mr. Joseph K. Emmet in "Fritz." Both are strong cards, and are sure to "pull" big houses.

The advance sale of seats for the engagement of the Madison Square Theater "May Blossom" company at the Grand, the last three nights of this week, opens this morning at 9 o'clock at the theater box-office, and promises to be unusually large. The following unheard of scale of prices will prevail: Parquette circle, reserved, 50 cents; parquette, 75 cents; sofa chairs, $1; admission, 35 and 25 cents. The company is the largest and best the famous Madison Square has ever sent out, and embraces, among others, Miss Georgia Cayvan, Joseph Wheelock, Benjamin Maginley, Forest Robinson and W. M. Crompton.

"The Crimes of London," a new melo-drama by Charles DeKrea, will occupy English's Opera House the last three nights of the week. Prices will be reduced during this engagement to 10, 25, 35 and 50 cents. The play is not a blood and thunder Bowery piece but a realistic drama, with mechanical effects and elaborate scenery. "The Crimes of London" carry a full brass and military band and ought to do well here. Of the play the Columbus (O.) Journal says: "It is said that there were 1,800 people in the Grand last night. The house was full and everybody enjoyed the excellent melo-drama rendered, 'The Crimes of London.' The piece is full of startling situations and sensational episodes and holds the closest attention throughout. Of the company, Miss Crocker scored a hit as 'Nell Tatters,' Mr. Beverly and Mr. Starr brought the house down as the two old bums, and Mr. Sullivan was great as 'Mark Roland.' The band is fine. The performance will be repeated in the afternoon and evening to-day and to-morrow."

ALDERMANIC MEETING.

Reports of the Various Committees—
A Number of Motions Adopted and Several Ordinances Passed—
The State Ditch Improvement.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen, last evening, a considerable amount of routine business was transacted, all members being present.

A motion adopted at the last meeting of the Council to instruct the City Engineer to set once advertise for bids to deepen and widen the State ditch was the cause of a considerable amount of discussion. Mr. McHugh held that it was poor policy to expend money on this ditch while the State Treasury was in the present condition, and hoped the Board would not concur in the Council's action. Mr. Prier, Pritchard and others spoke in favor of the motion, and it was finally adopted, Mr. McHugh voting in the negative.

ORDINANCES PASSED.

To grade and pave with brick the south sidewalk of Brookside avenue from Clifford avenue to Omer street.

Providing for the construction of a brick sewer from Chestnut street in and along Morris street to the Madison avenue sewer.

To grade and gravel the first alley south of Brookside avenue and Omer street from Clifford avenue to its eastern terminus.

Ordinances appropriating money for the payment of the several city departments were passed. On motion of Mr. Bernhamer the claim of Eugene Sauley, City Assessor, for $147 for making real estate transfers, was stricken from the appropriation ordinances and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

MR. GRIFFIN AGAIN.

The Board of Health reported that they had considered the matter of the ownership of the wagon and harness used for the Board of Health. They had learned that much of the money contributed by citizens for the purchase of the horse and wagon was subscribed with the understanding that the same were to be the property of Griffin and Captain Williamson. They had maintained it, and the bill for keeping the horse and repairs to the wagon would amount to more than the value of the property. The board were satisfied the city can gain nothing by attempting to establish claim to the property. The board also reported that they had organized on the 1st of January by electing officers, the names of whom were published some time ago.

WANT THEM FIRED AWAY.

A communication was received from the Health Board stating that numerous complaints had been made to them by the county and city officers relating to the basement of the Court-house being filled with tramps and disreputable characters, rendering the building unhealthy by the accumulations of dirt and filth. The board asked that the Board of Aldermen instruct the City Engineer to send a officer through the building about once every hour and clear the halls of persons found loitering in them. The report was non-concurred in.

A FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

The Finance Committee submitted an itemized statement showing the amount of orders drawn on the City Treasury during the year of 1884. Estimates, $546,300; expenditures, $548,650.83; amount of expenditures in excess of estimates, $2,350.83.

The action of the Council in adopting a motion instructing the City Engineer and Chief Fire Engineer to procure plans for the building of the new engine house contemplated, at a cost not to exceed $75, was concurred in. The resolution instructing the Chief Fire Engineer to reinstate Robert Bixton was withdrawn.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.

A motion was adopted instructing the Street Railway Company to report to the Board of Aldermen at its next meeting the different routes now in use by the Company, their length, whether double or single tracks, location and length of switches, side tracks, cars in use, running time, when and from where cars start, time of arrival and leaving of the first and last car at each terminal. This motion was adopted because of numerous complaints by citizens and residents of that part of the city lying south of Washington street, in regard to the inadequate accommodations rendered by the Company.

A motion was offered by Mr. Bernhamer that the Board of Aldermen call on Governor Gray in a body and extend to him the freedom of the city. Adopted.

The Board then adjourned, going directly to the Governor's reception.

Dr. C. C. Sharp, of the Electrical Sanitary Home, this city, starts to-day on a lecturing tour, including such cities as Fort Wayne, Logansport, etc. His subject is electricity.

While nearly everybody is complaining of hard times, it is very pleasing to see how lively business is with D. E. Stout, the agent of the Walker Boot, at 145 South Meridian street. As only one agent in every town handles these goods the one that gets them will surely draw the prize. Any one wishing the sale for his locality will do well to order his spring stock early and avoid the rush.
